FESTIVE SEASON PROGRAMME
DEC 17, 2026-JAN 1, 2027

Welcome

DEAR GUEST

On behalf of the entire Sea Breeze Beach House family, I extend heartfelt Christmas wishes to you and your loved ones. We are delighted to share this joyous season with you, and we have planned a host of wonderful experiences to make your stay truly unforgettable.

This festive period brings an array of delights—from exceptional culinary creations crafted by Executive Chef Ron Maynard to our beloved annual picnic and scenic tour. Every moment is designed to help you embrace the magic and warmth of this special time of year.

If you will be joining us for New Year's Eve, prepare for an extraordinary celebration. Our Night of Elegance Gala Evening promises to be a night of exquisite cuisine, captivating entertainment, and, of course, a spectacular fireworks display to welcome 2027 in grand style.

From our family to yours, we wish you a joyful and memorable festive season as we celebrate the arrival of a new year together here at our Beach House.

Regards.

Mr. Anthony Johnson
General Manager

Christmas MUST HAVES | THIS FESTIVE SEASON

EGG NOG

A drink served during the holiday season in Barbados. It is often referred to as the 'addictive drink that sneaks up on you when you least expect'.

FALERNUM PRONOUNCED FAH-LEARN-UM

A sweet syrup used in the Caribbean in Tropical Drinks. It contains almond, ginger and lime; sometimes vanilla or allspice. The syrup form can be either alcoholic or non-alcoholic.

GINGER BEER

First introduced as an alcoholic drink. Today, it is sold as a soft drink. This drink is sweetened with sugar/artificial sweeteners and is primarily flavored with ginger.

MAUBY

A bitter-sweet cold beverage made from the bark of the Mauby tree.

SORREL

A drink which is made from a deep red sorrel herb. Barbados ginger-ale or falernum is added to the sorrel to give it a smooth taste.

Christmas MUST HAVES | THIS FESTIVE SEASON

HAM CUTTER
Islander's favorite sandwich. Salt bread filled with slices of traditional baked ham. It is often served with spicy Bajan pepper sauce.

PEPPER POT
Festive food often eaten on Christmas Day in Barbados. It is a stewed meat dish with flavored spices, cassareep (syrup made from cassava) and hot pepper.

JUG JUG
This is a traditional Barbadian dish with pigeon peas as the main ingredient. The green peas are boiled with small amounts of salt meat and pork, with the stock-poured off. The meat, peas and seasonings are minced and a quantity of guinea corn flour is added and then cooked for about 30 minutes.

HAM
Baked leg ham glazed and garnished with cloves and pineapple rings.
