local dining

(1) Mission + Garnet Food Hall - Located north of our hotel on the iconic corner of Mission Blvd. and Garnet Ave. Enjoy nearly 24-hours of delicious dining, from early morning breakfast burritos to late night hot dogs.

(2) Pacific Beach Alehouse - Widely known in San Diego for its award-winning brewer, PB Ale House offers seasonal variations of numerous craft beers and cocktails perfectly paired with a full menu that features iconic dishes made from fresh, locally-sourced ingredients. Second-story dining offers an unobstructed ocean view with soft breezes, vibrant surroundings, and sensational sunsets for the perfect beachside experience. (858) 581-2337

(3) The Grass Skirt / Captain's Quarters - Inspired by the literal "captain's quarters" of 17th-century ships, this new bar will transport guests to a luxurious and moody adventure on the high seas. (858) 412-5237

(4) Flamingo Deck - Flamingo Deck is a New American, Italian inspired bar and restaurant located in Pacific Beach. This beach-side bar and restaurant is a favorite among foodies, party-goers, and people who just love a relaxing and fun vibe. (858) 263-4205

(5) Oscar's Mexican Seafood - A casual, local shop serving up fresh, flavorful Mexican seafood delights from around San Diego. Try the battered fish taco! (858) 412-4009

(6) Filippi's Pizza Grotto - Enjoy the traditional old Italian family recipes that the DePhilippis family has been serving for over 72 years. (858) 483-6222

(7) Broken Yolk Cafe Pacific Beach - The Original Broken Yolk Café started in 1979 in Pacific Beach, and has since become a Southern California favorite for breakfast, brunch and lunch. (858) 270-9655

(8) Swagyu Pacific Beach - Chop shop and restaurant serving up signature wagyu burgers, dawgs, and sandos. (858) 352-6634

(9) Cafe Athena - A Mediterranean Kitchen & Bar restaurant serving authentic Greek food and wine. (858) 274-1140

(10) Woody's - Serves beachfront food including burgers, tacos, açai bowls, & breakfast burritos in a laid-back atmosphere with outdoor seating. (858) 273-9663

nearby attractions

(11) SeaWorld - Famous for its aquatic shows, exhibits, rides, and encounters. You'll find sea turtles, penguins, rays, dolphins and more, as well as themed roller coasters. Aquatica is SeaWorld's water park with slides, fountains, wave pools, and other cool ways to make a splash. (619) 222-4732

(12) Balboa Park - Balboa Park is a cultural oasis that includes 17 museums, gardens galore and the world-famous San Diego Zoo. At 1,200 acres, Balboa Park is one of North America's most iconic urban parks and a must see on any visit to San Diego. (619) 331-1920

(13) Old Town SD - A Hub for History, Restaurants, Shopping and More! Old Town San Diego features acres of Mexican heritage, historical sites, colorful shops, eclectic restaurants, a theater and tons more to explore.

(14) Little Italy - Little Italy is a neighborhood in Downtown San Diego, California, that was originally a predominantly Italian and Portuguese fishing neighborhood. It has since been gentrified and is now a popular neighborhood full of Italian restaurants and grocery stores, home design stores, art galleries and residential units.

(15) Coronado Island - Known for its gorgeous beaches, Coronado Island offers a plethora of choices for fun in the sun. There are five white sand havens on the island including Coronado Central Beach, Coronado Dog Beach, Glorietta Bay Beach, Silver Strand State Beach and the Ferry Landing Marketplace.

(16) La Jolla Seaside - Community featuring famous beaches like Windansea and Tourmaline, waterfront dining, boutique shops, and more. Be sure to head over to La Jolla Cove to check out the majestic sea lions or La Jolla Tide Pools for some sea life discovery.
