Sparkling Wine

Sparkling wine has long been associated with "celebration" and rightly so! From crisp and dry to the kiss of sweetness from a sparkling Moscato d'Asti, sparkling wine always has a festive feel. Though we tend to think about sparkling wine as just a special occasion drink, it works perfectly as an aperitif and is one of the most flexible and versatile wines to pair with your meal.

Chardonnay

Like many wines, Chardonnay can have variations in flavor depending on where the grapes were grown. Generally speaking, Chardonnay is a dry, medium- to full-bodied wine with moderate acidity and alcohol. Its flavors range from apple and lemon to papaya and pineapple, and it also shows notes of vanilla when it's aged with oak. In Chablis and Burgundy, the minerality of the grape shines through while in the New World areas like California, the styles are more full bodied, usually with pronounced oak and sweeter fruit flavors.

Riesling

Riesling is an aromatic grape variety displaying flowery, almost perfumed, aromas as well as high acidity. This aromatic wine offers primary fruit aromas of orchard fruits like nectarine, apricot, honey-crisp apple, and pear.

Besides fruit, you'll often smell things like honeycomb, jasmine, or lime peel, along with a striking aroma that smells similar to petrol or petroleum wax.

Cabernet Sauvignon

and Cabernet Blends

With its full body, definitive tannin structure and dark fruits, Cabernet Sauvignon makes its presence known with notes of dark black fruits like blackberry, black current and plums, as well as herbaceous and earthy components like mint, bay leaf, tobacco leaf and pencil lead found more prominently in Old World versions.

Merlot

Similar to Cabernet Sauvignon though with more subtly. The tannins are lighter, the structure softer, making this a wine that can be enjoyed with or without food. This too-often overlooked grape boasts dark fruit flavors of black cherry, blackberry, plum, and raspberry layered with herbal notes and undertones of vanilla and mocha.

Pinot Noir

With this lighter style of red, Pinot Noir, red fruits are the star of the show, most often strawberry, tart cherry and raspberries. Pinot Noirs from Burgundy, the ancestral home of this grape, tend to be more earth driven than their New World counterparts. This picky grape loves warm days with cold nights, making Oregon and cooler parts of California, like Sonoma Coast, ideal locations for growing Pinot Noir in the US. Wines from Oregon have a bit more structure and express "cooler" fruits while the California-made Pinot Noirs come from warmer climates, yielding riper fruits which gives the wine a more velvety feel, expressing softer fruit and vanilla from being gently oaked.
