CULINARY EXPERIENCE

Frederic Kieffer, our Corporate Chef & Partner of Delamar's restaurants, brings New England-inspired American cuisine to life through a thoughtful, farm-to-table philosophy. Deeply committed to regional sourcing, Chef Kieffer works closely with Connecticut and New England farmers and proudly partners with Renée Giroux and Gilbertie's Herb Garden, the largest USDA-approved organic herb grower in Connecticut.

At Delamar, our dedication to New England's traditional and sustainable foodways is a cornerstone of our culture. By honoring each stage of the culinary process—from sourcing to preparation—we create dishes that are balanced, expressive, and rooted in place. The result is a refined yet heartfelt dining experience that you and your guests will savor long after the celebration ends.
