A RECENT ADDITION

Wine Spectator Magazine – May 2025 Issue
Fess Parker Napa was featured as a “Recent Addition” in an article entitled “Napa Valley Updates”

It’s rare to find a non-Napa winery with a presence in the valley. Yet celebrated Santa Barbara winery Fess Parker debuted its tasting room last summer to showcase Addendum, a limited-production label dedicated to Cabernet Sauvignon that the family established in 2014 highlighting wines from esteemed Napa Valley sites. The spacious, modern tasting room, across from the Archer Hotel, is well appointed and features family photos, maps and more. Guests can choose a seat at the bar or a table or in the lounge area and sample wines, which rotate weekly among three tiers of flights and can include the Burgundian and Rhône-style wines from the producer’s Santa Barbara vineyards.

THE WORLD OF PARKER

FAMILY WEEKEND TOGETHER

Catching up and letting go

As I write this we are wrapping up a weekend of family togetherness on the upper mesa. We set up camp around the reservoir and christened it “Loch Fess.” No monster sightings as of yet, but if we see one we’ll most certainly name her Fessy!

Eli’s entire family and most of mine were present for a relaxing weekend of swimming, vineyard walks and generally catching up. The little cousins played while older ones took turns providing meals, sharing snacks and good bottles of wine and beer. The setting and weather were just about perfect. I couldn’t help but think Fess and Marcy would have been thrilled that we were all gathered together on the Home Ranch.

I am reminded of lyrics from one of my favorite country singer/songwriters, Kacey Musgraves:

*They’re there for your first year
They give you your first beer
When you get your heart broke
They’re there for your worst year
Don’t get you at all,
but your apple don’t fall too far from ‘em*

Now we’re not quite as rough around the edges as all that, but we’re a big group with a lot of big personalities, ideas and ambitions. Family business can be challenging for all those reasons and more...so thank goodness we can all jump in the reservoir and cool off when we need to!

Cheers to you and your families!

Tim, Ashley & Eli

Wow, this year is flying by! I cannot believe it is already summer and the year is halfway over. We had a record-breaking dry January but luckily got a couple of decent spring rains. We ended with a yearly average of less than 7 inches, which is less than half of our average yearly rainfall. Spring was temperate and summer is off to a moderate start. We seem to get most of our heat later in the summer now and even into early fall. In the vineyard, vegetal growth is good, with a small to average crop. It is still too early to know what the quality of the vintage will be, but – fingers crossed – it looks good!

In the winery, we have been busy racking barrels, putting together blends and bottling to open up barrels for the coming vintage. All of the 2024 white wines have been bottled, and we are now putting together the 2023 Rhône varietal wines along with the 2024 Santa Rita Hills Pinot Noir. There is still a lot of work to be done leading to harvest. Cross your fingers that we dodge any curve balls from Mother Nature this vintage and we luck out with another beautiful year of wines from Fess Parker Winery!

I hope you enjoy the wines, and from the whole team here at Fess Parker Winery, CHEERS!
