San Miguel de Allende, Mexico (April 1, 2026) - Even the most spoiled pooch never had it so good!

The new Pueblo Bonito Vantage San Miguel de Allende—the luxurious European Plan (EP) hotel in one of Mexico’s most charming and historic cities—has added a new amenity to its long list of outstanding offerings: Purposeful pampering for dogs lucky enough to accompany their owners’ visits.

Among the options for dogs and their humans are mindful walks at the beginning and end of each day led by staff trained to respect the pace, energy, and personality of each pet: Paws at Sunrise is an early-morning stroll with coffee or herbal tea for the guest, fresh water for Rover, and a moment of calm to start the day together; Sunset Stroll is a peaceful walk at dusk that’s ideal for both parties for closing the day.

There’s also a Pet Spa, where dogs can enjoy a calming massage, gentle (pet-safe) aromatherapy, paw cleaning, and a relaxing brushing. Further pampering includes a private, pet-friendly picnic with a blanket and natural treat for your friend and a snack for you. When day is done, the dog bed will be neatly arranged with soft lighting, fresh water, and a good-night massage.

The hotel hasn't forgotten the importance of delicious—and healthy—dog dining. The in-room feeding service features fresh water replenished throughout the day, and food prepared to the owners' instructions. The special Dog Menu offers a wide variety of options made with lean meats and fish, plus fresh vegetables and fruit.

The Guardian Dog, for example, is prepared with lean beef, chicken livers, olive oil, salmon oil, carrot, zucchini, green beans, and banana, while The Fisherman is a delectable combination of fresh salmon cut into cubes and sautéed sweetbreads, dressed with olive oil, served with a vegetable purée and spinach with fresh rosemary.

And don't worry, Pueblo Bonito Vantage San Miguel de Allende treats its human guests just as well. Among the many people-pleasing opportunities are:

- Aromatika Spa, a sanctuary of wellness where guests can embark on numerous journeys of self-discovery and transformation
- LaFrida restaurant, which pays homage to iconic Mexican artist Frida Kahlo by providing a truly memorable dining experience
- V Rooftop Terrace, where the menu highlights tapas, drinks, and exquisite views of the city's picturesque skyline
- Pueblo Bonito Vantage Experiences, offering everything from wine tastings and art gallery tours to a sunrise visit to a pre-Hispanic pyramid complex.

San Miguel de Allende—designated a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2008 and named the world's best city and most enchanting destination by Travel + Leisure—has been charming visitors for nearly 500 years. The city is renowned for its baroque Spanish architecture, thriving arts scene, culinary adventures, and cultural celebrations.
