Christmas

MUST HAVES

THIS FESTIVE SEASON

EGG NOG

A drink served during the holiday season in Barbados. It is often referred to as the 'addictive drink that sneaks up on you when you least expect'.

FALERNUM PRONOUNCED FAH-LEARN-UM

A sweet syrup used in the Caribbean in Tropical Drinks. It contains almond, ginger and lime; sometimes vanilla or allspice. The syrup form can be either alcoholic or non-alcoholic.

GINGER BEER

First introduced as an alcoholic drink. Today, it is sold as a soft drink. This drink is sweetened with sugar/artificial sweeteners and is primarily flavored with ginger.

MAUBY

A bitter-sweet cold beverage made from the bark of the Mauby tree.

SORREL

A drink which is made from a deep red sorrel herb. Barbados ginger-ale or falernum is added to the sorrel to give it a smooth taste.

Christmas

MUST HAVES | THIS FESTIVE SEASON

HAM CUTTER

Islander's favorite sandwich. Salt bread filled with slices of traditional baked ham. It is often served with spicy Bajan pepper sauce.

PEPPER POT

Festive food often eaten on Christmas Day in Barbados. It is a stewed meat dish with flavored spices, cassareep (syrup made from cassava) and hot pepper.

JUG JUG

This is a traditional Barbadian dish with pigeon peas as the main ingredient. The green peas are boiled with small amounts of salt meat and pork, with the stock-poured off. The meat, peas and seasonings are minced and a quantity of guinea corn flour is added and then cooked for about 30 minutes.

HAM

Baked leg ham glazed and garnished with cloves and pineapple rings.
